“ Oh, give thanks to the Lord! Call upon His name; Make known His deeds among the peoples! Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him; Talk of all His wondrous works! Glory in His holy name; Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the Lord! Seek the Lord and His strength; Seek His face evermore! Remember His marvelous works which He has done, His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth.”

Elders' Comments

Are you growing as a Christian? Lack of growth is seen in many ways, such as a lack of interest in personal Bible study and prayer, unfaithfulness in meeting with the church for worship, and a general lack of interest and involvement in the work of the church for which Jesus died. Thankfully, this does not describe many at Tara, but it does some. Each of us should examine ourselves as to where we are in our spiritual lives. If improvement is needed, it should be made immediately. Paul often wrote very plainly. He told the church at Corinth: "Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves, Do you not know yourselves...that Jesus Christ is in you? Unless indeed you are disqualified. (II Cor. 13:5)

BE NOT ENTANGLED!

Have you ever become entangled in a vine, jumbled wire, or something else that caused you to lose your balance and fall? Spiders build webs to entangle insects. Some fishermen use nets to catch (entangle) a larger number of fish. Barbed wire has often been used in time of war to entangle the enemy, or to prevent an escape of prisoners. Did you know that the Bible warns us not to become entangled in that which can hinder our spiritual growth and progress? Let's notice some of these biblical warnings.

We should not become entangled with the affairs of this life. "You therefore must endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier." (II Tim.2:3,4) By the gospel we have been called into faithful service of our Lord Jesus Christ. He has called us to be soldiers of the kingdom of heaven. This involves commitment, faithfulness and perseverance. Secular matters, family, and personal activities must become secondary. He has promised that when we seek God and his kingdom first in our lives, then all other things will be added to us. (Matt.6:33) Jesus spoke of the "seed" sown among the thorns being choked by the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches, resulting in one becoming unfruitful. (Matt.13:22) As Christians, we must guard against and avoid such entanglements.

We should not become entangled with the law of Moses. "Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage." (Gal.5:1) Judaizing teachers among the Galatians were trying to induce them to turn back to the law and observe its requirements. If they did so, they would become estranged from Christ and fall from grace. (v.4) Christians are not justified by law keeping, yet this does not mean that we live without law, "but under law toward Christ" (I Cor.9:21) We live under "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus," which has "made us free from the law of sin and death." (Rom.8:2) Many today are entangled with the law of the Sabbath (Col. 2:14-17) Some go back to the law to justify instrumental music in Christian worship, Ten commandment keeping, the offering of incense, etc.

We should not become entangled with the pollutions of the world. "For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning." (II Pet. 2:20) This word, "pollutions" means defilements, contaminations, or general worldliness. The context refers to the false teachers who had once obeyed the truth, only later to return to their former state of defilement in their teaching, as well as in their lifestyle. This can happen with anyone. That's why scripture warns against departing from, or falling away from, the faith, and that we must "contend earnestly for the faith..." (Jude 3) Error can be very enticing. So can immorality. Let's always heed the warning not to become entangled in either.
